

Queen City Children's Choir Festival

Cincinnati Youth Choir is now accepting applications for the Queen City Children's Choral Festival, June 25 – 28, 2020

- National treble-voice festival hosted by the award-winning Cincinnati Youth Choir, Ensemble-in-Residence at the University of Cincinnati College-Conservatory of Music.
- Festival price, $495 per person, is all-inclusive and includes all room, board, activities, local buses and a festival t-shirt.
- A non-competitive festival, choirs perform combined repertoire under the direction of Founder and Artistic Director of the Cincinnati Youth Choir, ROBYN LANA, and share their own repertoire in the Gala Concert.
- Guest Artist, JIM PAPOULIS, will lead the festival choir through the process of song-writing culminating with a performance of their work in the Gala Concert.
- Experience some of Cincinnati's finest entertainment: A day and performance at King's Island, a visit to experience sea life at Newport Aquarium (KY)/or to marvel at masterpieces at our award-winning Cincinnati Art Museum. Top it off with a pizza & ice cream social featuring Cincinnati's famous LaRosa's Pizza & Graeter's Ice Cream.
- Festival philosophies focus on choral artistry, providing the best possible experience for your singers, and socially exchanging with other singers from across the US forming lasting friendships.
- Space fills up fast due to the small size of this intimate workshop festival. Contact CYC Community Engagement & Marketing Manager, Rachel Breedon: rbreedon@cincinnati choir.org to reserve your spot in this fun filled tour.
- Registration and sample itinerary are available on-line at www.cincinnati choir.org under the festivals tab.

Join us in Cincinnati – The City That Sings

Robyn Lana- Festival Director

Jim Papoulis- Guest Artist