

Cincinnati Youth Choir

Event Detail Sheet

Healing & Understanding: We Are One Festival

Event Description: The Cincinnati Chamber Orchestra (CCO) will present Healing & Understanding: We Are One, a five-day festival featuring lectures and concerts that will take place October 22-26, 2022. The festival will utilize music and artistic expression as a method to explore race and justice in America and will invite open conversation and exploration of these issues through artistic expression, conversation, and significant community partnerships. All events are free to attend, although reservations are required.

Artistic collaborators include the Cincinnati Chamber Orchestra, Thomas More University music program, Cincinnati Youth Choir, Cincinnati Boychoir, MUSE, Cincinnati Men's Chorus, Voices of Hartford, Classical Roots, National Underground Railroad Freedom Center, ArtsWave, and more. Visual Artist-in-Residence Michael Thompson will create a work over the five-day festival and will reveal at the final event. The festival is led by CCO Assistant Conductor Daniel Parsley.

Free to Attend, but Registration Required: Call 513-723-1182 or visit the CCO online at <https://www.cocincinnati.org/healingunderstanding/>

Choirs Performing: Cincinnati Youth Choir Bel Canto, Cincinnati Boychoir, MUSE, and members of the Cincinnati Symphony Orchestra Classical Roots

Schedule
Event Date & Time: Sunday, October 23, 2022
6:30 PM: Arrive, meet in front lobby
7:10 PM: 1st performance, 3rd floor lobby
8:00 PM: 2nd performance, mural by slave pen
8:20 PM: Dismissal

Location: National Underground Freedom Center, 50 E. Freedom Way, Cincinnati, OH 45202

Drop off/Pick up: Freedom Center's main entrance, meet in front lobby

Note: there is a Bengals game at 1:00 pm on October 23

Uniform: Black t-shirt w/logo, jeans, and black shoes

Questions: Email: kathleenr@cincinnatichoir.org