

Cincinnati Youth Choir

BUILDING TOMORROW'S LEADERS, ONE VOICE AT A TIME

Caitlyn McGlynn

Managing Director

Caitlyn Lana McGlynn is a passionate music educator and conductor, currently serving as the Managing Director of the Cincinnati Youth Choir. With an extensive background in choral music and music education, Caitlyn brings a wealth of experience and dedication to her role.

Having been a part of the Cincinnati Youth Choir program from 1st through 12th grade, Caitlyn's journey with the organization began early, igniting her lifelong love for choral music. Throughout her college years, she further honed her skills through an internship with CYC, solidifying her commitment to nurturing young voices and fostering musical excellence.

Since joining the staff in 2017, Caitlyn has made significant contributions to the Cincinnati Youth Choir community. She currently conducts Con Brio, and previously directed Vivace and Vivo Coro, leading young singers with enthusiasm and skill toward artistic growth and self-discovery. As the Queen City Choral Festival Administrator, Caitlyn plays a pivotal role in organizing and promoting a choral festival that brings together talented young singers from across the country, fostering a sense of community and camaraderie through music.

In addition to her work with CYC, Caitlyn previously served as an elementary general music specialist at Northstar Classical School in Middletown, OH, where she shared her passion for music with students in kindergarten through 7th grade. She also taught middle school orchestra in Texas for two years and beginning orchestra in Mason City Schools for seven years. Her commitment to music education is further demonstrated through her Level I Orff-Schulwerk Certification and membership in professional organizations such as the American Choral Directors Association, Chorus America, American String Teachers Association, and National Association for Music Education.

With her unwavering dedication to musical excellence and education, Caitlyn Lana McGlynn continues to inspire and empower the next generation of musicians within the Cincinnati Youth Choir and beyond.
